CAROLINA TIMES.

CHARLOTTE.

R. P. WARING, Editor.

Monday, November 22, 1869.

The people of Lancaster, so we judge from a recent article in the LEDGER, incline to favor a connection with the "C. C. Railroad;" at what point is not indicated. How will the people of Camden like the Rock Hill or Chester connection?

If there is a road from Lancaster to either of these points, what advantage would the Wateree route be to Camden? When once the flood-tide of prosperity sets in as it will eventually do, in that portion of South Carolina, an Air-Line route will be demanded, and it will come. If our Lancaster friends would only view this question with an eye to the future, they will see that these roads, even if built, are only of temporary advantage, and the result will fall very far short of their expectations. Even if these branches are built, much of the cotton and other produce of Lancaster county will still come here in wagons, because this will always be a better market to sell, and a cheaper market to buy in. This will be the result if the Wateree road is built. But can it be built? We think not. But a small portion of Kershaw county is interested, so she will not vote a subscription. Camden is only partially interested, so private subscription cannot and will not do much. Camden knows by what the Kings Mountain road has done for Yorkville, what to expect. Private parties will not take stock, because no road of that length between two small towns can carry freight enough to keep it in operation, or only enough to keep it so partially. It would take at least $400,000 to grade and place the cross-ties on the bed, so the Lancaster subscription will only do one half. Now, it Camden fails to raise the other, as she is likely to do, what then? Why, an entire loss of the county appropriation, and the death of railroad enterprise for a long time. Therefore, vote a subscription to the road that is most likely to be built. The road from this city to Lancaster can be built, and will be built, and if the county subscription is carried to the Wateree road, when the road is built, the town of Lancaster will be left out in the cold, because, in that event, the Georgetown and Charlotte road will be built on an Air-Line.

THE MIDNIGHT SUN.—The following is a description of the scene witnessed by Mr. Campbell and his party in the north of Norway, as they stood on a cliff 1,000 feet above the sea. The passage is unsurpassed in graphic beauty:

The ocean stretched far away in silent vastness, at our feet; the sound of its waves scarcely reached our airy lookout; away in the north the huge old sun swung low along the horizon like the slow beat of the pendulum in the tall clock of our grandfather's parlor corner. We all stood silent looking at our watches. When both hands came together at 12 o'clock, midnight, the full round orb hung triumphantly above the wave—a bridge of gold running due north spanned the water between us and him. There he shown in silent majesty which knew no setting. We involuntarily took off our hats; no word was said. Combine, if you can, the most brilliant sunset and sunrising you ever saw, and its beauties will be pale before the gorgeous, coloring which now lit up ocean, heaven and mountains. In half an hour the sun had swung up pepceptibly on his beat, the colors changed to those of morning, a fresh breeze rippled over the flood, one songster after another piped np in the grove behind us—we had slid into another day.

BROWNLOW AND BUTLER.—The following stanza was found in a bale of goods received from New York by a merchant in Montgomery, a few days ago:

"The time may come when all is well,
When peach in beauty reign;
When Brownlow seeks a home in hell,
And Butler writhes in chains!"

Fee simple—The money which is soon parted from the fool who goes to a quack.

Printers and Paradoxes.

A printer is the most curious being living. He may have a bank, coins, and not be worth a cent; have small caps, and have neither wife nor children. Others may run fast, but he gets swifter by setting fast. He may be making impressions without eloquence; may use the lye without offending, and be telling the truth; while others cannot stand while they set, he can set standing, and do both at the same time; have to use furniture, and yet have no dwelling; may make and put away pi, and never see a pie, much less eat it during his life; be a human being and a rat at the same time; may press a great deal and not ask a favor; may handle a shooting iron and know nothing about a gun or pistol; he may move the lever that moves the world, and be as far from moving the globe as a hog under a molehill; spread sheets without being a housewife, he may lay his forms on a bed, and yet be obliged to sleep on the floor; he may use a dagger without shedding blood, and from the earth he may handle stars; he may be of a rolling disposition, and yet never desire to travel; he may have a sheep's foot, and not be deformed; never without a case, and yet know nothing of law or physic; be always correcting errors, and be growing worse every day; have embraces, without having the arms of a girl thrown around him; have his form locked up, and at the same time be free from jail; watch-house, or other confinement; his office may have a hell in it, and not be a bad place after all; he might be plagued by a devil, and be a Christian of the best kind; and what is stranger still, be honest or dishonest, rich or poor, drunk or sober, industrious or lazy, he always stands up to his business.

Collecting Money.

An attorney recently received an account for collection, and in reply he made the following statement of the financial conditions of the section in which he resides, which was doubtless perfectly satisfactory to the creditor:

Now I am perfectly astonished at you for sending a claim for collection in these times. You might as well cast your net into the "lake of fire and brimstone," expecting to catch a sunfish, or into the celebrated stygian pool to catch speckled trout as to try to collect money here. Money? I have a faint recollection of having seen it when I was a small boy. I believe it was given to me by my uncle, to buy candy with, (the candy I do remember) But it has been so long since I have seen any, that I about forget whether gold is made of corn or mustard, or silver of white onions or fish-scales. Why, sir, we live without money? You're behind the times. It is a relic of barbarism, of ages past. We live by eating, sir—we do. Hoot, man the millen—is coming, the year of Jubilee has come, and all debts are paid here as much as they will be. unless you take "produce." The word "money," is not in our vocabulary, in the latest Webster, (revised for the medium,) it is marked "obselete" formerly a coin representing value and used as a medium of commerce. A few small pieces can be seen in our Historical Society collections, where they are exhibited as curiosities, along with the skeleton of the "Mastodon," Noah's old boots, and Adam's apple.

DEATH FROM CARBOLIC ACID. Henry H. Montgomery, the Chief Gardner at the Alms House, Philadelphia, died from the effects of carbolic acid. Montgomery had been in the habit of going to the Surgical Ward and taking tincture of ginger About a quarter before five o'clock one evening he went there and remarked to the nurse who was in charge "I dont feel very well; guess I will take a little ginger." He then went to the closet, got a bottle, and took a dose of the contents. The effect was immediate, and he exclaimed: "I have been poisoned." He was placed on a bench, and the physicians were summoned. Every effort was made to counteract the effects of the poison but without avail, and Montgomery died in ten minutes after swallowing the drug. Carbolic acid is rated, in the books, as a poison, but Dr. Sapleigh and the Physician at the Alms House declare that this is the first case recorded of a person having died from its effects.

Evening Bulletin.

HOW THE WESTERN STATES GROW.—In 1850, Illinois had a population of 851,900; Missouri of 682,000. and Iowa of 192,000. Ten years later, the population of Illinois and of Missouri had doubled, and that of Iowa had increased nearly fourfold. The railroad system effected these great changes. In 1870, Iowa will have a population of 1,200,000. Five railroads are being constructed East and West across the State, and others are anticipated.

A young man named Turn married a cousin of the same name, on the plea that "One good turn deserves another.

The New York Commercial Advertiser, under the title of "Journalistic Beats" says:

"Newspaper establishments are very apt to be crused with hangers-on-sticks, who because of some previous relation, with the paper, cannot be shaken off; brazen beats, who consume the stationary of the concerns: are constantly asking for envelopes and pens, and endeavoring to do the attaches out of small loans. But far worse than this class of 'sells' are the creatures who, having acquired some insight into the interior affairs of newspaperdom, seek to obtain favors and perquisites from the public by assuming the role of reporters and social correspondents. Not a week passes that one or more of our papers here do not bar of these frauds operating in their names." It adds that, "The public are too liable to draw their inference of the newspaper fraternity from contact with these characters. People, however, may set it down as a rule that any one the fall in with who attempts to trade on newspaper relations has no such relations with the press; but is a fraud, who deserves to be treated as such."

THE COFFEE TRADE.—Brazil is the greatest producer of coffee. That known in trade as Rio is a Brazilian coffee. Of the 712,000,000 pounds produced by the world per annum, Brazil furnishes 400,000,000, or more than half of the whole; Java 140,000,000; Ceylon 40,000,000; St. Domingo 40,000,000; Cuba and Porto Rico 2,500,000; Venezuela 25,000,000; Sumatra 25,000,000; all others, including the Mocha, 18,000,000. The United States is the greatest consumer. We use in the United States nearly one-third of all the coffee consumed in the world, using nearly seven times as much as Great Britain, with population not very far from the same. Germany comes next

A gentleman called to see a lady and was told that she was out, although he saw the lady's head reflected in a mirror placed opposite to the open door. One hour after, he met the lady at the house of a friend, and observed: 'I called at your house just now, but did not have the pleasure of seeing you.' 'I am very sorry, but I had to go out in great haste,' was the reply. 'In such great haste, madam, that I suppose you left your head behind you as I saw it in the glass.' 'It is very possible, for I am so absent.

ACCIDENT IN A SILVER MINE IN MEXICO—ONE HUNDRED PERSONS CRUSHED, &c.—A letter from Mexico states that, on the 9th inst., one hundred men, women and children were crushed to death by the falling in of a silver mine at Guanajusto while the miners were eating their dinners, just brought them by their families. The day following the mine disaster, sixteen women, six children and twelve men were drowned in the river Mercreata. They had reached the river bank and sat down to rest before undertaking to crass the river, which was swollen be rains, the bank suddenly slid off from the main land into the stream and every one perished. The bodies were found lower down the stream.

A friend writing from Mt. Airy, informs the Statesville American that the citizens of Surry have made a county subscription of $25,000 to the Plaster Banks and Salt Works R. R. and that they are in real earnest to have it built, and will do more. He also gives us a most flattering description of the natural resources of that section, manufactures, &c., to which we will hereafter refer.

Old North State.

It is with pleasure that we read of emigrants who are coming to this State, few in numbers as yet, but they will bring others. So far most of them have settled in the Western part of the State. We are glad to see our Western friends thus favored, and when we have a consolidated line of railroad running from North to South through the State, people will see more of the advantages the East can offer, and this section will likewise fill up. Let them come.

Newberne Times.

"Ha'n't your 'at sleepy?" asked a boot-black of a seedy-looking clergyman; "it looks as if it was a dreadful long time since it had a nap."

Jay Cook and William H. Seward are each owners of fifty thousand acres of land in Iowa, and Horatio Seymour owns twenty-five thousand acres in the same State.

Denver papers warn people at the East to stay away, as work is scarce, wages low and the necessaries of life at extravagant prices.

It Has No Equal.

It is composed of the active principles of roots and plants, which are chemically extracted, so as to retain all their medical qualities.

Ministers and Public Speakers

Who are so often afflicted with throat disease, will find a sure remedy in this Balsam. Lozenges and wafers sometimes give relief, but this Balsam, taken a few times, will insure a permanent cure.

Will all those afflicted with Coughs or Consumption, give this Balsam a fair trial, they will be pleased with the result, and confess that the SURE REMEDY IS FOUND AT LAST.

It is Sold by all Druggists in Charlotte.

Davis' "Pain Killer."

Stephen Miles, Davenport, England—Gents—I have great pleasure in recommending the Pain Killer. For more than three months I suffered severely with a sore throat, for which I consulted the best physicians, but derived no benefit until, by a friend's advice, I tried your Pain Killer as a gargle. In a short time it completely cured me. While in India I frequently gave your medicine to the natives when no doctor could be had, in cases of severe headache, rheumatic pains, cramps in the stomach, and cholera, AND IT ALWAYS CURED THEM. I consider it a most valuable medicine.

Yours, &c. STEPHEN MILES.

GENTS.—I have used Perry Davis & Son's "Pain Killer" in my family for nearly a year past with great success. I deem it a valuable medicine; it gives almost immediate relief. I like to have a supply always on hand, and would cheerfully recommend it to all my friends.

We Live in three Climates.

In this country we have at different seasons of the year, the temperature of three climates. Our Springs and Autumns have a softness and mildness that belong only to the Temperate Zone; our Mid-summers are torrid, and our Mid-winters almost arctic in their frigidity. These changes involving a variation of from ninety to one hundred degrees of Fahrenheit during the year, are upon the whole conducive to health and long life, but they tend to entail upon us some distressing complaints which can only be escaped by the exercise of due care and the use of a proper antidote when the system is pre-disposed to contract them.

The chief and most annoying of these disorders is dyspepsia, once supposed to be incurable, but which, since the introduction of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, now about twenty years ago, has proved to be a perfectly manageable disease.

In the Spring and Fall, but more especially in the Fall, the symptoms of dyspepsia are generally aggravated. The profuse expenditure of the animal fluids under the burning sun of Summer, is apt to leave the stomach weak and indolent and incompetent to the task of perfect digestion. It requires a tonic which will rouse it from its lethargy and brace and invigorate without irritating or inflaming it. This tonic has been provided in the wonderful vegetable preparation which has replaced in a great measure, all the old palliatives formerly prescribed by physicians, under the false idea that the disorder could not be radically cured. The success of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS in al the varieties of dyspepsia, acute or chronic, has effectually exploded this fallacy, and it is now recommended as a specific for indigestion by some of the most eminent members of the medical profession.

PARADISE LOST.—Our Readers should bear in mind that the great London Tableax opens to-night at Oates' Hall. To avoid delay at the door, Tickets can be had at Tiddy & Bro's. Periodical Store, during the day, without extra charge. The following is from the Columbus, (Miss.) Index.

THE TABLEAUX.—By reason of the great success of the Miltonian Tableaux of Paradise Lost, the proprietors have determined to remain a few days longer in the city for the accommodation of the numerous citizens who have not yet been able to see and enjoy their exhibitions. Another entertainment will therefore be given on Monday night as appears from their advertisement elsewhere published this morning. There is no need to recommend to the patronage of our people, a panorama which has won such a high and wide reputation and which has been so generally admired on every occasion of its presentation. Holcombe Hall has been crowded every night by fashionable audiences; and we doubt not will be equally well filled during the remaining stay of the Tableax in this city.

☞ Mince Pies for families and parties supplied at short notice from Prather's Bakery.

F. BURGLERS.—We learn that on Friday night some person or persons, after having stolen the key from the store door of H, & B. Emanuel's attempted to force an entrance into Messrs. Tiddy & Bro.'s Book Store by that means, but the key became fastened so that they could not get it either in nor out, and in that condition they were obliged to leave it. Mr. Tiddy had to force an entrance before he could open his store.

They next repaired to Jerry Bethel's barber-shop, and being more successful of course Jerry suffered, but to what amount we have not learned.

A THAN GIVING JOKE.—Turkey raffles, at this season, are very popular. One of our friends attended one the other night, and kenoed. So, he won a nice fat gobbler; but had to stand treat. Others won turkeys, and they stood treat. So, the natural consequence was, our friend got too full for utterance, and had to retreat, which he did in a style resembling the base line of a Virginny rail-fence; with a nice turkey under his arm, he lent his weary way homeward, as well as he could. Our friend found the road uncommonly rough; consequently, he stumbled and fell several times over all sorts of obstructions in the path. Each time he fell he dropped his turkey, but contrived to pick it up again. On entering his house, he steadied himself as well as he was able, and said to his wife, "Here, wifey, I've got 'leven turkeys for you." "Eleven turkeys! What do you mean? There's only one." "There must be 'leven turkeys, wifey; for I fell down 'leven times, and every time I found a turkey. There must be 'leven turkeys."

Minnesota was lately the scene of a marriage with a romantic origin. A lady who had been a teacher in that State married a missionary and went out to India, carrying with her photographs of friends and acquaintances. A young British officer of her acquaintance was looking over these pictures one day, and was struck with the appearance of Miss Jennie Shaw, of Lakeland, Minn. He opened a correspondence with her, and they were at last engaged without either having seen the other. He has since come to this country, visited the lady, and they, being mutually pleased, were married a few weeks ago and have gone to Europe.

A very absent-minded young man applie to the County Clerk in Davenport, Iowa, for a marriage license. When asked for the name of the lady he could only remember her christened name, and was obliged to leave the officer to find a friend who could give him her surname. When they stood up before the County Auditor to be married, that officer called her the name which the friend had given her when the lady interrupted by saying that that was not her name. The ceremony was stopped, the parents of the bride were sent for they having testified to the actual name of the lady, the ceremony was concluded.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market.—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage. S. B. SEXTON & CO.,
